STATEMENT BY GOV. HORNER IS ANSWERED

Senator Searcy Says Democrats Opposed Measures

Springfield, Ill., April 13.—(P)—Legislative adjournment over the weekend failed to terminate the argument between democrats and republicans over the assembly's failure to pass bills increasing the sales tax and including relief within its scope to raise funds for unemployment relief.

Replying to democratic Governor Horner's statement that it is for them (republican legislators) to explain to their starving constituents and to the hundreds of thousands dependent on relief, why they took the action they now rejoice in, Earl B. Searcy, senate republican leader, said today:

"Governor Horner's statement and charges can not, in fairness, be accredited to a man in robust health. The smack to much of the mental reasoning of a disappointed child, suddenly bereft of his favorite toy and rebellious as a result."

Searcy called attention to the governor's omission of any mention that "six democrats in the house voted with republicans in killing the sales tax and 22 other democrats sat silent and refused to vote."

That, said the republican senator, was the answer to the democratic governor's charge that "for selfish, partisan motives the republican organization in the house allied with the very active lobby of the public utilities of the state, have voted to abandon to starvation and misery the men, women and children of the state who cannot provide for themselves."

Searcy, in his written statement answering the previous statement made by the governor, was reminded that the same bill whose death in the house caused the governor to demand the republican house members failed to pass in the senate, "where only ten of 34 democratic senators had voted against it."

While the argument was at its height, word came from Washington that Harry L. Hopkins, federal emergency relief administrator, had allocated nearly $9,000,000 to Illinois for April relief.

FACE RELIEF TRIAL

Belleville, Ill., April 13.—(P)—A warrant was on file here today charging Fred J. Niemeyer and his wife, Madeline, with obtaining relief under false pretenses. It was alleged Niemeyer was employed at a lunch stand and his wife at a garment factory when they obtained aid.

Plant Muscles Are Developed By Dumb Bells

Detroit, April 13.—(P)—Give a sensitive plant, mimosa, a set of dumbbells and it will develop its lifting "muscles."

The plant is sensitive to the suggestion of exercise, W. E. Burge and G. C. Wickmire of the University of Illinois reported today to the Federation of American Societies for experimental biology after experiments with the delicate plant.

When the plant's leaves are touched they drop, then slowly rise. The exercise experiment was made by attaching weights to the leaves.

After 30 days of this, the leaves were able to lift almost twice as much as leaves similarly exercised without the "dumbbell" weights.

TOWNSEND PLAN CHANGED TO PAY ONLY $50 MONTH

Democrats Confident Measure Will Be Defeated

Washington, April 13.—(P)—Half way through its 20 hours of debate on the administration's social security program, the house was told today the Townsend old pension plan, to be offered as a substitute, had been radically changed.

Representative Buck (D. Calif.), a member of the ways and means committee, said he was informed the Townsend plan to be offered as an amendment to the pending bill would call only for a $50 payment to those more than 60. Originally, the Townsend program was $200 a month.

Democratic leaders already had said they were confident of defeating the Townsend old age pension idea. They said they would clear the way for a "showdown vote" if the proposal were offered as a substitute to the administration bill—as appeared probable.

Leaders said today the change in the McGroarty bill—the original Townsend bill—made the defeat of the proposition almost certain and predicted there would be only a half hundred votes for it.

Buck said:

"The fact that the Townsend idea has been revised downward so much is proof enough of the soundness of the position of those who have opposed the scheme."

Speaker Byrns announced the ways and means committee would not object to anyone offering the Townsend plan as an amendment and that should anyone seek to block a vote he would favor a special rule to permit one.

THOUGHT IS TELEGRAPHED FROM BRAIN

Experiment Shown By Harvard Scientists At Meeting

By Howard W. Blakeslee
Associated Press Science Editor
Detroit, April 13.—(P)—Thought silently and directly from the human brain to paper by electric wires here today.

The substance of these thoughts could not be read on the paper. But they recorded the passage through the brain with startling distinctness.

With a similar hook-up also the muscles of the human body telegraphed an electric record of their fatigue and wrote it on paper.

Both experiments were shown by Harvard scientists to the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology.

In both cases the body supplied all the electric current, energies of a few millionths of a volt which naturally flow uninterruptedly throughout life.

Pine needles thrust into the flesh painlessly with aid of anesthetics acted as telegraph poles. Wires attached to the needles carried the body's electrical messages.

For thought recording one needle was in the scalp, the other in the part of the ear used for earrings. The brain messages were amplified enough to move a pen.

The experiment began with a man sitting still, his mind and body both at rest. The needle traced a wavy line, with about nine waves a second. "Close your eyes," he was told.

As he did so, instantly the waves became larger, and a trifle slower. Their rhythm showed even a more restful pain with eyes shut than open, probably because the eyes were no longer busy seeing objects in the room.

"Now multiply in your head '1 to 32,'" he was commanded.

Almost instantly the waves ceased. In their place the ink line became smooth, as if pressure were placed on it.

In a moment the man spoke the answer, "672."

As he did so, the waves came back to the electric current produced by his brain.

Then a surprise. The waves stopped abruptly—the smooth line came back. Then the man said:

"Yes—672—that's right."

CHECKER TEAMS TO MEET HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Four County Tournament To Start; Eight Players To Participate

Checker players from four counties, Cass, Morgan, Greene, Scott, will gather at the City Hall in this city Monday night, at 7 o'clock, to start play in the Four-County Tournament, being sponsored by the Jacksonville Checker League.

Eight players will take to the boards at 7:30 o'clock to decide who is the champion player in the four counties. P. C. Stein and Louis E. Biggs will be the Jacksonville representatives in the tourney, having won over twenty players in the elimination contests held during the past week.

Alderman S. H. Scott, White Hall, manager of the Greene county tournament, announced last night that Carson T. Metcalf and A. D. Rollins, both of Greenfield, had been selected as the representatives from Greene county. Both of these players are well known to checker enthusiasts in this section of the state and will probably be hard to beat.

Sam Monroery of Virginia, resident of Ashland, and Frank Trussell, of Bluff Springs, would be the Cass county representatives. Shelton, a former resident of Woodson, is considered an outstanding player, having defeated some of the best checker artists in the country. Trussell is also rated as a high class player.

T. H. Whitlock, manager of the Scott county tournament, sent in the names of Raymond Whitlock and Raphael Stone as the Scott county entries. Both of these men play a splendid game of checkers and will give their opponents plenty of opposition.

Frank Bracewell, D. S. Chapman, Ernest May and Louis E. Biggs, are the committee in charge of the tournament.

The winner of the four-county meet will receive a silver trophy from the Jacksonville Journal-Courier Co.

The public is invited to attend the matches Monday night.

RUBBER STRIKE AT AKRON, OHIO, IS CALLED OFF

Federation Of Labor, However, Loses Its Fight

By Joseph L. Miller,
Associated Press Staff Writer

Washington, April 13.—(P)—American Federation of Labor chiefs agreed tonight to call off their threatened strike in three large Akron, O., rubber factories after obtaining important concessions from the manufacturers.

The Federation lost its fight, however, for immediate elections to determine whether employees in the Goodrich and Firestone plants preferred the Federation to company unions as their representative for collective bargaining.

William Green, Federation president, and representatives of the Rubber Workers Council, A. F. of L. unit in the rubber industry, agreed that the rubber workers should not strike until the companies' court appeals from labor board election orders were concluded. This may take months.

Tonight's agreement, signed after three days of negotiations with Secretary Perkins, are subject to ratification by the rubber workers at mass meetings in Akron tomorrow.

Speaking for himself and the local union presidents, Coleman Claherty, Federation organizer in Akron, said: "As far as we are concerned we are inclined to favor the agreement."

The four-point agreement provides: (1) That the employers would meet representatives of any group of employees for collective bargaining on wages, hours and working conditions.

(2) That the companies would post on their bulletin boards the results of these negotiations.

(3) That "it is recognized the holding of an election as ordered by the National Labor Relations Board is postponed until final decisions have been reached by the courts."

(4) That no strikes or lockouts should be ordered pending the outcome of these appeals, and that grievances unable to be solved by collective bargaining should be referred to a fact-finding board, meantime, the board is to be approved by the secretary of labor. If either management or employees refuses to abide by the recommendations of the fact-finding board, the fourth point in tonight's agreement becomes invalid.

Green said the agreement was "acceptable to labor" and that the court decisions in the election decision appeals "with justice to the workers."

By W. B. Ragsdale,

Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, April 13.—(P)—The creation of a permanent national planning agency to chart the course for a continuing public works program was reported authoritatively today to be envisaged by President Roosevelt in shaping his four billion dollar relief work plan.

This disclosure came while the unofficial House Democratic steering committee was seeking a conference with the president to ask that members of Congress be allowed some say about the projects to be undertaken in their districts. They hoped to see Mr. Roosevelt Monday.

Other developments of the day included:

Allocation by Harry L. Hopkins, the relief administrator, of $113,661,384 for April relief. Georgia was given no funds and Pennsylvania only half a month's supply, they being among the states which Hopkins has said had not made arrangements to furnish their share of the cost.

Bureau of public roads officials said states were ready to go ahead with a grade crossing elimination program costing between $100,000,000 and $200,000,000.

Robert Fechner, director of the Civilian Conservation Corps, said 20,000 members of the corps would be sent to Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico and Colorado to broaden the soil erosion prevention program.

Secretary Ickes reported that 17,000 of 19,000 public works projects under the old fund had been completed or were under construction and that employment at different times had been provided 2,000,000 persons. He said $2,500,050,000 had gone into construction and $1,200,000,000 to the financing of other government agencies.

ANNUAL DANCE AT MACMURRAY LAST EVENING

Seventy Couples Attend Social Affair At College Saturday

The annual sophomore dance of MacMurray college was held last evening at eight o'clock in the social room of the college, with seventy couples in attendance. The theme of the dance was a Japanese garden.

The social room was effectively decorated with ferns and spring flowers. Sandalwood incense was burned and the lighting was indirect. Eight large cardboard dolls dressed as "peishagirls" stood around the room, adding much to the Japanese atmosphere.

Large Japanese lanterns enhanced the attractive appearance of the room. The dance program were of copper colored paper embossed with black Japanese silhouettes and the school seal.

Miss Zaida Gray Schell gave an impromptu dance to "Sophisticated Lady."

Carol Peters and his orchestra from Alton furnished the music. The members of the orchestra were clad in Japanese costume.

Guests at the dance included Dr. and Mrs. C. P. McClelland, Mrs. Roma Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Beggs, Mrs. Marian Chase Schaeffer, Miss Dorothy Remley, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison King, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Blackburn.

REPUBLICANS ASSAIL F. D. R. TALK PLANS

Assert Chances For Presidency In '36 Improving

By D. Harold Oliver,
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, April 13.—(P)—An assertion that Republican chances for the presidency in 1936 are improving, but varying views as to how they should be capitalized, today emerged from brief and informal political parleys here between Col. Frank Knox, Chicago publisher, and Republican senators.

Put forward by some senators as a possible presidential candidate against Franklin D. Roosevelt next year, Col. Knox first called on Senator Borah of Idaho, who wants the party reorganized with new principles and leaders. He then spent another ten minutes in the office of Senator Capper of Kansas.

The conferences coincided, but had no connection, with a fresh assault on the administration by Senator Hastings (R., Del.). He challenged what he said were Democratic claims that Roosevelt platform promises had been fulfilled. He asserted the people were "awakening to this perfidy" and a year from next November would "account in their own way for the deception" practiced upon them.

The spirit of Republican activity recalled recent reports that Herbert Hoover might be planning to play a prominent role in grooming the G. O. P. for 1936. One Republican senator asserted privately he understood the former president felt he could stage a comeback as Grover Cleveland did under somewhat similar economic circumstances in the nineties.

Hoover, who conferred with scores of political leaders and business men during a visit in New York this week, was represented variously by callers as not seeking or expecting the Republican nomination in 1936, and as desirous of carrying the G. O. P. standard again if the chance offered.

U. S. D. OF 1812 CHAPTER MEETS

Social Meeting Is Held At American Legion Home Saturday

More than fifty members and guests enjoyed a social meeting of the Francis Scott Key chapter, U. S. Daughters of 1812, held Saturday afternoon at the American Legion home. Mrs. Ben Lee Stice received the guests and Mrs. Henry Wm. English, president of the chapter, welcomed the members and guests.

Miss Martha Gibbs played the Star Spangled Banner, which was followed by the pledge to the flag.

According to a patriotic custom Mrs. English fittingly called attention to the names of memorable statesmen whose birthday or great deeds occurred in April. Among these were Thomas Jefferson "whose birthday" Mrs. English said, "by a happy coincidence, came on the 13th of April, the day of this meeting."

"Jefferson is honored as the 3rd president of the United States, but added laurels are his for writing the Declaration of Independence and founding the University of Virginia. Mrs. English spoke of his wonderful life, which was one to emulate. She recalled his last words—"Having done all that I could for country and my fellow-man, I resign my soul to God and my daughter to my country."

President James Monroe was mentioned as outstanding and on the 30th day of April, 1789, Washington became president. These great Americans the society was asked to remember as among the greatest in history.

During the program the audience was charmed by dances given by the Misses Grace Maxwell and Dorothy Herron, of the School for the Deaf. This was demonstrated by hearty and repeated applause. Miss Rhoda Olds' beautiful vocal numbers delighted her audience. Miss Martha Gibbs accompanied her on the piano. Again the audience enjoyed a real treat, when Miss Roberta Canatsey, in a lovely costume, gave two charming dances. Mrs. Canatsey accompanied her daughter.

A fitting climax to this outstanding program was the selection given by Miss Elizabeth Lumley, of MacMurray College, who read Camilla Richarcho's with usually fine effect.

A contest, which added to the zest of the meeting was won by Mrs. M. J. Donahoe and Mrs. Miller Weir tying for first prize. The second prize was won by Miss Lora D. Petefish.

Greetings from a new member, Mrs. Clara Seidman Templeton, were read. The Misses Grace Maxwell and Dorothy Herron assisted the program committee.

At the business session copies of the By-Laws were distributed to each member, the gift of Miss Carolyn Taft. Also the president was instructed to take greetings to the Associate Council in Washington, D. C. Greetings were sent by the chapter to Mrs. Arthur J. O'Neill, former State President and now Treasurer National.

Following the program delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held May 18, with Miss Taft as hostess at the American Legion home.

ZION CITY NOW HAS TWO LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

Voliva Candidates Are Defeated In School Board Elections

Zion, Ill., April 13.—(P)—Citizens of Zion had two local governments—or none at all—tonight as political opponents of Wilbur Glenn Voliva celebrated fresh victories at today's school board elections.

William M. Edwards, who successfully led a ticket of anti-Voliva candidates in the April 2 election appeared at the city hall today and was sworn in as mayor.

But Ernest E. Harwood, for 10 years mayor of Zion, refused to yield the office and after a bitter argument both factions withdrew to settle their claims at a meeting Monday.

Tonight's action reading "This office is closed" adorned the headquarters of city government in Zion.

Voliva officials insisted at a wordy conference that their term of office did not end until May 1. But Mayor-Elect Edward declared otherwise, and as his first official act removed a portrait of Voliva from the walls of the council chamber.

"It's a good thing we came in today—if he had waited until May 1 to take office, we would have been nothing left to take," Edwards said.

Candidates of the anti-Voliva group swept the school elections today, unseating in some cases officials

Be Sure to Vote

Tuesday is city election day in Jacksonville. This year the voters must choose an entire set of city officials on account of a new state law which requires that elections be held every two years, instead of annually. It is this important that all citizens exercise their right of franchise and see to it that the new administration is the choice of a true majority of the people.

The three administrative offices to be filled are mayor, city clerk and city treasurer. With each of these positions goes a heavy responsibility, and voters should use their best judgment in making selections so that the city will have the best qualified people in its administrative offices. In their hands will rest the executive government of the municipality.

Eight aldermen, the entire personnel of the city council are to be selected by the voters in the various wards. The council is the legislative body of the city; it makes the city laws and votes appropriations of tax money for the maintenance of city government. It should therefore consist of men of sober judgment and possessing a knowledge and grasp of municipal affairs that can be relied upon to the average.

In order to put people in office who will truly represent the people it is essential that all those who are qualified to vote visit the polls Tuesday and cast ballots. Otherwise they cannot complain if the city government for the next two years does not go to their liking.

The polls in the sixteen voting precincts of the city open at 6 a. m. and close at 5 p. m.

Student Troubles

Our large universities and colleges are apparently becoming like those of Europe. Student agitation on political questions seems to be growing by leaps and bounds. Demonstrations, riots, accusations are bobbing up everywhere, and the demand for ancient eggs and vegetables is on the increase.

At the bottom of all this will doubtless be found the spirit of communism, working among the students to stir up trouble. The Communist controls a nation armed to the teeth, yet he preaches pacifism for others. He seeks to dominate the world; yet he does his best to keep others from being patriotic in defense of their own nation. He pushes his own cause constantly; yet by sabotage, propaganda and obstructive tactics seeks to undermine the beliefs and programs of other people.

The communist is at work in colleges and universities, realizing that he must capture the youth if he is to enslave the nation. He finds the patriot failing to recognize the danger and makes his converts without interference.

But the patriotic people are at last rousing themselves, and their efforts to stem the tide of radicalism are meeting with the sort of opposition that the communist knows well how to direct. From now on it will be a fight to the finish, and the patriot who wants to preserve freedom and good government must not despair or slacken his efforts, for he is pitted against a stubborn and determined foe.

Reciprocity or Conspiracy?

Something has gone "haywire" with the American tariff regulations, while domestic markets are being invaded and captured by foreign goods manufactured with cheap labor. The principal menace seems to be Japan. That nation is making an intensive drive to dominate world trade, and the Pacific ports are being flooded with cheap goods made under industrial conditions that no self-respecting American would endure.

In January of this year 5,000,000 square yards of cotton goods were imported from Japan to be made into cheap clothing. Meanwhile the blue eagle perches on idle smokestacks above New England cotton mills.

A movement has been started in Congress to repeal the cotton processing tax in order to save the American textile industry. Meanwhile the government holds a death grip on cotton production, and stifles the business. With the cotton farmer unable to produce the Japanese mills have the nation at their mercy.

Tariff reciprocity is a progressive step in tariff administration, but it must be honestly handled and not used to wreck American industry and force American labor onto the relief rolls. Processing taxes may be a source of revenue to pay the farmer for restricting production, but they should not become millstones about the neck of both industry and agriculture, robbing the farmer and manufacturer of the domestic market.

A Waste of Crocodile Tears

(Farm And Ranch, Dallas, Texas)

We saw an editorial in a daily newspaper the other day that was dripping wet with crocodile tears. It stated that in Anhwei province, China, 3,000,000 Chinese were starving, and, after describing in harrowing detail just how these babies looked with gas distended stomachs and exposed ribs, concluded with the statement that here in America "farmers are signing up in solemn contracts with the American government not to farm" as well as they can for fear there will be a surplus of foodstuffs.

Long before any one ever heard of an Agricultural Adjustment administration—at times when American farmers were producing to capacity, and shiploads of wheat, meat, and other foodstuffs were crossing the ocean in almost an endless line to the markets of Europe, there were starving millions in China, and oftentimes in India and in other parts of the world. That there are starving Chinese mothers and babies at this time is to be regretted. There are also ill-fed people here in this land of abundance, and there would be millions of others in the same condition as found among the Chinese were it not for the fact that a generous government and a generous people are providing for them.

There is no sane reason to believe that these starving people in China would now be nourished had it not been for the AAA. It is far-fetched even to presume that it has made any difference at all. Therefore it is indeed a lame argument to use against the attempt to reduce surpluses in this country in order that our own farmers may receive a price for their labor and investment that will give them a fair standard of living.

Progress in 75 Years

The day of the famous pony express across the western plains seems as far away from us as the day of the Roman emperors. But time somehow gets telescoped, in America. The 75th anniversary of the first trip of the pony express was celebrated just the other day—a surprising reminder that there are living men who can actually remember back to that distant, legendary period.

What a contrast between the old and the new this celebration displayed! The pony express riders strained every nerve and sinew to make the trip from St. Joseph, Mo., to the west coast in a matter of weeks.

Today airplanes cover the distance in less than a day. The laziest auto tourist can do the trip in a third of the time the hard-riding old-timers required.

That contrast is a measure of the almost unbelievable physical progress that the country has made in the last three-quarters of a century.

SO THEY SAY

I think another war would mean the collapse of the American standard; our standard of living would sink; our whole moral attitude would change.

—Bernard Baruch.

We have sold our farm business for a mess of pottage or one or two or three years of benefit favors.

—Senator George of Georgia.

If the Republican party has the courage to turn to the humanity of Lincoln and away from the property-minded leadership which has dominated it most of the time for 20 years, we can save America.

—William Allen White.

They ought not to try to call themselves the Democratic party. The Roosevelt administration should be properly named the St. Vitus dance party.

—Huey Long.

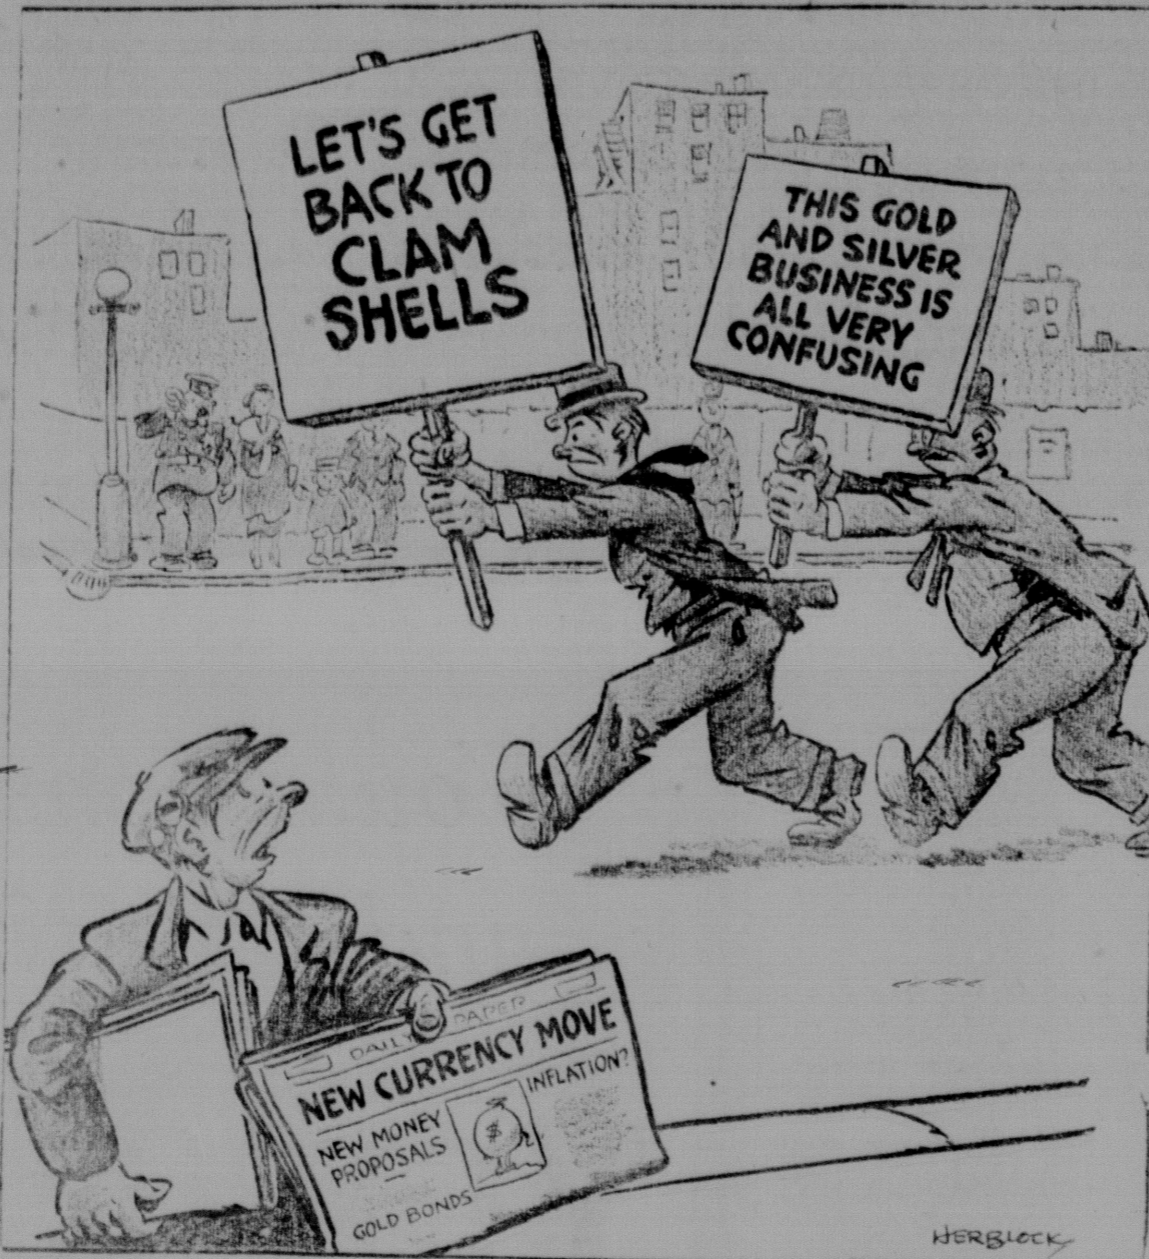

It's cheaper to build boys' clubs than jails. If I were to start again, I would never waste my time in politics, but would devote it to boys.

—John Hays Hammond, famous mining engineer.

I am supposed to be an advanced thinker in this field. But I am for a good old-fashioned marriage until death do us part.

Spoilsmen Get Both Feet in Federal Trough . . . Merit and Ability Don't Count—Just Be a Pal or a Relative of a Higher Up . . . Kin of Best Job Wanglers Load Down Payrolls.

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal-Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington—No end of nasty cracks have been made at Jim Farley's spoils system and at nepotism on Capitol Hill.

It's about time somebody looked at the "personal friend racket" and nepotism in the huge federal administrative machine, which figure just as importantly in distribution of New Deal patronage—with results often just as sour.

The two systems combine to invest with absurdity the theory that appointments to most government jobs are based on efficiency and merit.

Outside the Farley-Hurja job machine, which has had its best success operating with regular government departments—especially Justice and Commerce—the town is full of small groups of major and minor officials, as well as individuals, who have established phenomenal records in getting jobs for friends, acquaintances, wives and sweethearts.

These unofficial job-wanglers operate for various reasons. Some seek to widen their little spheres of influence and thus expand a sense of power.

Some are sincerely seeking the best possible talent for New Deal agencies and want to pick associates or subordinates from those of whose merit they personally are aware.

Others are paying off various kinds of debts and still others seek jobs for acquaintances, new or old, out of mere kindness. And many are out to land every possible member of their families on the federal payroll.

And What a Mixture!
The result has been a queer melange in New Deal personnel of able workers, nitwits, chair-warmers, and just so-so employees.

Frequently one finds, in the same office, one or two brilliant persons who supply all the work and all the brains and three or four more—of equal status—who represent mere waste of taxpayers' money.

Many an able person has been recruited who couldn't have obtained a Democratic endorsement. But many mean injustices have been done to superior men and women whose appointments have been blocked because an inferior person with "pull" sought the same job.

There's no beginning and no end to this nebulous system I'm trying to describe. Except as it begins in the White House with Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt and the secretariat and ends with the Negro elevator operator at RFC who is striving to get his girl friend a similar job at Interior or Agriculture. In other words, everybody plays the game.

Roper Does Well by Kin
At least three cabinet members have relatives in other federal jobs here—Roper, Wallace, and Ickes. (It may be unfair to name them because there probably are others). Roper had five relatives drawing government pay when the last count was made. Millionaires with alleged New Deal sympathies have had little trouble landing their sons in berths "for the experience."

Quite a few society gals are sprinkled around. General Johnson started in by loading NRA with personal associates whom he "knew he could trust."

One man who three years ago was collecting money to beat Roosevelt for the presidency has landed six members of his family in government berths.

A smart woman who came to town about a year ago has successfully berthed two sons, a daughter-in-law, and finally herself. There are many such instances.

Bootlegger "Makes Good"

The other day I ran into a fellow who before repeal was one of the capital's best-known bootleggers. By pestering his old customers in high places, he had conscientiously placed four youths who used to run liquor for him—and also the sister of one of them.

He was now about to approach one of the three or four most important New Deal officials to get a job for himself. (Knowing the official, I doubt if he made out very well this time).

One can think of several subdivisions of government overloaded with nice, middle-aged or elderly people who are there because they had sympathetic friends and simply 'had to have a job.'

Put Wives to Work

Many husbands have kept working at it until they managed to obtain two incomes for the family instead of one. But the $5,000-a-year husbands usually have had more success placing their wives than the fellows struggling along on $1,200 a year who badly need more money.

The moral of all this is perhaps the same one that has always applied to nepotism in Congress. A congressman's wife or son may be the best possible secretary, both for him and his constituents. Or such a relative may be one who never comes near his office or, in any event, has no place on the federal payroll.

But one thing's sure Washington was never such a paradise for the born wire-puller.

Beverly Hills, Calif., April 13.—Among my mail this morning was a telegram marked urgent, it says, "The democratic postmasters of Los Angeles county are getting together. It said very specifically that it's the 'democratic' postmasters. I would love to see a dinner given by the republican postmasters. I think these boys are kinder getting together to draw up ways and means of prolonging their stay. You see their employment calls for four years (with an option). Well, I think it's this option that they want a little rough and tumble advice from me on. I am suggesting that they deliver no mail to anyone of republican faith. Why should hard working, deserving democrats take up their valuable time handing out what is no doubt anti-democratic propaganda, and I am so advising 'em."

Lack of New Books May Have Caused Shrinkage In Library Circulation

A detailed report of the activities of the Jacksonville Public Library for the fiscal year 1934-35 was submitted to the board of trustees by Miss Charlotte Ryan, librarian, at the annual meeting.

Although the library circulation decreased somewhat during the past year, there were several contributing factors that could not be controlled. One of these was the lack of new books, a condition due to the depleted finances of the library board.

After hearing the report the board officials and members complimented Miss Ryan and other members of the staff, Misses Hiatt, Taylor and Johnston for their excellent work.

Dr. Carl E. Black is president of the board; J. G. Ames, vice president; W. D. Doying, secretary; Mrs. M. H. Havenhill, Walter E. Rogers, C. A. Hemphill, Mrs. Vance Bassett, Prof. Joe Patterson Smith and Mrs. Lillian I. Daniska, members.

The library report for the year follows:

The conclusion of another year's work brings us again to the place where we survey the library's activities and summarize our gains and losses in the twelve months past. The aim through the year has been rehabilitation after the retrenchment enforced by the conditions of the two years previous. We feel that some progress has been made, both by re-binding and purchase of new books, in the attempt to restore the losses suffered by the book collection, even though we close the year with only 212 more books than we had at the beginning of the year. Actually we added to the library 1,399 books, but as we were compelled to withdraw 1,187 books, wornout and unfit for further service, we were left with a net gain of only 212 books.

The shrinkage in the books stock is reflected in the circulation figures. The total circulation of books for the year was 121,253, which fell 19,816 short of the number circulated last year. That seems a large loss to sustain. It is explained largely by lack of new books, and partly by lack of money for any books, but there are also contributing causes.

However, in order to get the correct perspective on circulation figures one must study them over a long range period. Over a ten-year period the total of the yearly gains in this library has been 53,998, and the total of the yearly losses has been 29,718, making the net gain in the ten-year period 24,280. In the first five years of this period the net gain was 13,240. In the second five years of the ten-year period the net gain was 11,040. When we analyze our circulation in this manner we can see that the general trend of the figures is upward in spite of occasional lapses.

The total amount of money spent to operate the library for the year was $11,946.18. The amount spent per capita of the city's population was 67 cents. That is, each citizen of the 17,747 in Jacksonville, at the cost of 67 cents to the city, had the privilege of borrowing any number of the 36,760 books in the library. The standard recommended by the A.L.A. is $1.00 per capita. The amount spent per registered borrower was $1.32; that is, each of 8,993 registered borrowers, at the cost of $1.32 to the city had the privilege of borrowing any number of books from the library. The cost of circulating each of the 121,253 circulated during the year was 9 cents. To each registered borrower was loaned a yearly average of 13 books.

In addition to the privilege of borrowing books each citizen of Jacksonville, at the small cost of 67 cents each to the city, had the privilege of consulting with the members of the staff whose education, training and years of experience have peculiarly fitted them to become familiar with the resources of the books in the library and enabled them to interpret the books to the people. Without a staff trained to know and handle books, a collection of books would be like a store-room of valuables to which the key had been lost. Each additional year that a library assistant remains in a library increases her usefulness to the library by means of her increased knowledge of its book resources.

Mention should be made here of one accomplishment made possible by the assistance of the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission. With the help of workers from the I.E.R.C. approximately 700 bound magazines were re-blocked under the general supervision of Miss Johnson of the staff. The dilapidated appearance of these magazines had long been an eyesore in the library, and there would probably never be enough money to have them re-bound, we feel that the work done them is decidedly worth while, and adds very much to the appearance of our shelves. Throughout the year, under Miss Johnson's direction, there has been developed a definite program and campaign of mending, rebacking and general re-conditioning of the book stock, a project that has needed attention for a long time, but has been deferred through press of other work. An assistant loaned by the I.E.R.C. has helped in this work. In line with our general policy of the rehabilitation of the book stock more money has been spent on re-binding than in quite a long time, $652.07 being the amount spent on re-binding. We feel that the re-binding of good books stands very close in importance to the buying of new books. Another project carried through with the workers from I.E.R.C. was a complete and thorough cleaning of all books on the shelves.

Expenditures

As has been stated previously, the amount spent to operate the library during the year was $11,946.18. Of this amount, $10,515.49 came from the tax levy of one and two-tenths mills on the assessed valuation which last year amounted to $9,445,334.00. A ten per cent dividend from the Ayers National Bank amounting to $472.82 helped to enlarge the fund, and the collections from library fines, rentals, memberships, etc., increased it still further. Out of the total amount spent to operate the library $2,735.28 was spent on books, periodicals and binding. Since most of the other items in the budget, such as heat and light, insurance, special assessments, supplies, printing and postage, are more or less fixed charges, the only flexibility allowed in the budget is in the items for books, periodicals, binding and salaries.

Accessions

During the past year we were able to add 1,399 books to the whole collection, beating last year's record by 512 books. Of the 1,399 books added, 1,088 were purchased, 218 by gift, and 93 were bound magazines. The withdrawal of 1,187 books leaves a net increase of 212 books. The total number of volumes in the library is 36,760. The total amount paid on book bills for the year was $1,810.33. The 1,399 books added by purchase and gift were distributed as follows: 887 in the adult department, 255 in the children's room, and 257 in the school collections.

Reference

This year reference work has again been heavy. The many demands on our resources have been met with all that we could offer. The reference librarian has assisted a number of clubs in outlining study programs. Between twenty-five and thirty clubs and study groups in the city and county draw on the reference resources of the library. To meet their programs and in answer to other reference demands, 267 bibliographies have been prepared in the year. The reference department now has a file of such

TEST

● Put a pound of butter in the center of a large sandwich plate. Around the edge place an onion, a piece of Limburger cheese and some garlic. Place in one of our modern ice cabinets before going away for a week-end.

● Upon your return three days later see if there is the slightest taste change noticeable in the butter. Chip some ice for a cool drink. It will be clear too and tasteless.

● Make this same test with any other kind of refrigerator and see if you want to eat the butter or cool a drink with an ice cube that has food odors and gases frozen into it for 3 days.

ICE washes food
odors and gases
from 5 to 7 times per minute.

● All foods give off odors and gases as a result of a natural breathing process through thousands of tiny cells. To prevent contamination, these odors must be removed from a refrigerator as fast as they are formed. If food is unwrapped and uncovered, these odors will be automatically removed in an ice refrigerator because the air is washed, cleansed and revitalized from five to seven times a minute.

● Where it is necessary to protect fresh vegetables in covered containers from freezing temperatures and the dry thirsty air of the home sized cold storage plant, air circulation is obviously shut off. To prove the absolute truth of this statement, put a rose with stem and leaves in a quart jar partly filled with water and screw on the cover. The flower will smother in a short time as compared to the same flower in a vase of water where it can breathe naturally.

● Food that is forced to re-breathe the air it has given off quickly becomes contaminated. That's why your modern ice cabinet has no pans or built-in incumbrances that stop the natural air circulation. You place any and all foods on racks through which air can circulate freely. If your refrigerator is rated 6 cubic feet capacity, you have 6 ACTUAL cubic feet of useable food storage space. The cost per cubic foot is about half. You be the judge. It's your money.

RIISING PRICES PUT PREMIUM ON MILK OF HIGHER QUALITY

Urbana, Ill.—Rising wages in the cities will mean an increased demand for higher quality milk, and dairymen can turn this to their advantage if they will scrub their milk utensils a little harder, says J. M. Brannon, dairy bacteriologist of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Utensils, he points out, form the hotbed of contamination that lower the quality of milk and jeopardize the dairymen's returns. Quality of the milk and cream can be maintained and losses prevented if the utensils are kept clean.

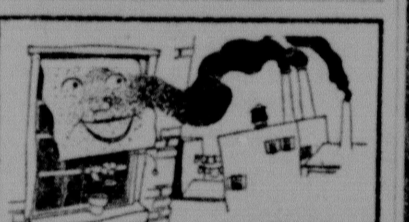

If milk is allowed to dry in the can or bucket, contamination is sure to result. Brushing and rinsing containers and then allowing them to dry in the air and sunlight is a good method of assuring their cleanliness. Separators must be given especially close attention if they are to be kept clean.

Use of pails or other utensils that are pitted, cracked or rusted is sure way of getting bacteria into the milk since the organisms lodge in these broken places.

A weak solution of chlorine is also useful in ridding the milk utensils of bacteria. Recent tests at the College experiment station showed that chlorine treatment requiring 15 seconds to each pail, reduced the number of germs found in milk pails from about 400 to six.

Careful brushing of the cow before milking is of great help in reducing the bacteria content as well as the presence of dirt and foreign matter in the milk.

One of the most common, yet costly, results of careless milk handling is sour milk and cream. Souring is caused by bacteria that develop rapidly at temperatures around 60 degrees. Clean utensils plus prompt cooling to at least 50 degrees will do much to reduce losses from sour milk.

Fire Wrecks First Floor of Building On Douglas Ave.

Store Building Occupied by Earl Powars Was Badly Damaged Saturday

A roaring fire of unknown origin early Saturday morning gutted the first floor of a 2 story brick building at East Douglas and Illinois avenues, occupied as a grocery establishment. Firemen brought the blaze under control after an hour's battle, holding it to the first floor with two lines of water and other equipment. The stock of the grocery store, owned by Earl Powars, is a complete loss.

When firemen arrived at the building at 1:45 o'clock, after 2 alarms were sounded at the same time, they found flames leaping halfway into the street. The large plate glass window already had been shattered by the intense heat.

A report that the upper floor was occupied by a family sent the firemen scurrying up the stairway and on ladders. They entered the smoke filled rooms and made certain that no one was sleeping in the building. The second floor has been untenanted for some time.

Flames Held to One Room With streams of water playing on the flames, the department succeeded in keeping the fire confined to the one room. One small hole was burned in the ceiling and the fire checked there.

The interior of the store is a charred mass of wreckage. The fire appeared to originate about the middle of the large room. The alarm was turned in from the Alton and Wabash tower, and a passer also saw the flames and called the fire department. The towerman said that there was no sign of fire around the store at 1:30, but that 15 minutes later he saw the flames sweeping out of the front window.

Loss on the fixtures and contents was estimated at about $700, but no estimate has been made on the building. Powars owned the grocery stock and the fixtures were the property of Eldon Gruber, former proprietor of the store. The building, known as the Keating building, is now owned by the C. B. & Q. railroad company. It was erected in 1899. The stock and fixtures were partly covered by insurance.

Lack of New Books May Have Caused Shrinkage In Library Circulation

bibliographies extending back for about the last ten years. The binding of magazines, our largest supply of current reference material, which had been allowed to lapse, was resumed again. Since, in a certain sense, almost three-fourths of library work is reference work it is difficult to be more explicit as to definite accomplishments.

Registration
The library issued during the year 812 new cards to adults; 347 new cards to children; 75 new cards for adult borrowers; and 55 for rural borrowers, making a total of 1,552 cards issued. Fourteen hundred sixty-nine cards were withdrawn from the files. The total number of registered borrowers on March 31, 1935, was 8,993. This represents about 50 per cent of the city's population.

Reading Rooms
Seven newspapers come daily. These are kept on file for a period of from three months to one year, with the exception of the local papers of which there is a permanent file. During the past twelve months 4,961 magazines were circulated. The library received about 83 magazines monthly.

Juvenile
The total circulation of books among the children was 48,396. Here again there was a decrease of 3,273 from last year. But compare this decrease of 3,273 with the decrease of 16,543 in the adult department, and it will be easily seen that the decrease in the children's department was just about one-sixth of the total decrease of 19,816. The children borrowed approximately one-third of the total number of books issued, yet the decrease in their circulation showed only one-sixth of the total decrease. Phrased in another manner, the children, in spite of the decrease shown, are comparatively making more use of the library than adults. Recognition of this fact should be made in the budgeting of the book fund between the departments next year. The number of books circulated from the children's room was 30,151, and from the school 18,245.

Throughout the year stories were told by the children's librarian in the various schools, book talks were made before the children's book clubs and P.T.A. meetings, contests were run in the children's room in order to stimulate interest in reading, and several puppet shows were given. In September instruction in the use of the library was given to all the seventh grades in the junior high school. During Education Week, just preceding Book Week, all the schools were visited for book talks and stories, and three school clubs were given book talks as well. During Book Week many new books were on display, and a special display of hobby books was arranged to follow the slogan for this year's celebration. Some of the merchants in the city fell in with the hobby idea, and displayed hobbies in their windows using the library posters with them, and many of the school classes worked out projects in celebration.

The mending and reconditioning of books received a great deal of emphasis this year. An special effort was made to put every available book in sufficiently good condition to do duty in circulation. As the children's books receive very much harder wear than the books for adults, this has been no small task. About 80 picture scrap books were made and a great number of pictures were mounted for the picture file. During the year the children's room has a part-time assistant, a student from MacMurray College whose salary was paid from the government funds for the relief of students.

School Collections
During the year 257 books were added to the school collections at a cost of $136.44. The circulation of books from the schools showed the least decrease of any of the three departments. The total number circulated was 18,245; the decrease was 642. A good deal more money will have to be spent on these school collections in the next two or three years if we continue this type of service.

Publicity
We wish to thank the Courier and the Journal for their courtesy in extending us space in their columns for our publicity.

VOUCHES FOR STORY OF 32 YEAR OLD HAM

Charles Cruse Has Eaten Peanut-Acorn Delicacy

Charles Cruse of 602 South Clay avenue read an editorial in The Journal and Courier this week entitled "The Ham, What Am." The paragraph describing a type of Virginia ham that has been known to "keep sweet" as long as 32 years was of especial interest to Mr. Cruse, as he has personal recollections of exactly the same kind of ham.

Several years ago he had the pleasure of helping to eat several hams whose age ranged from 3 to 5 years. The hams were specially cured, but were distinctive for another reason—the razor-back hogs from which they came were fed entirely on peanuts and acorns.

Mr. Cruse says that combination of feed puts a flavor into a ham that nothing else can. He also vouches for the authenticity of the story about the 32 year old ham. Many of them, he says, are held for years and seem to improve in taste.

Miss Genevieve Birch of Griggsville was shopping here Saturday.

Club Owners Believe That Fans Will Crowd Into All Stadiums For 1935 Opener

By Alan Gould
Associated Press Sports Editor
New York, April 13.—(P)—That time-honored American institution and annual spring athletic tonic, major league baseball is just around the corner.

It's all rigged up for its biggest and perhaps most entertaining show since the players wore whiskers and four strikes were out. Unmistakable signs of returning prosperity have followed a series of noteworthy changes in the big league setup. Not even dilatory spring has checked manifestations of widespread national interest.

The big comeback, which club owners have been looking for since 1929 and which actually got under way amid the enthusiasm generated by the smashing climax to last year's pennant campaigns, appears certain to be confirmed by the rapid whirl of the turnstiles this season.

It was stimulated during the winter by a succession of sensational deals, climaxed by the shift of Babe Ruth from the New York Yankees to the Boston Braves. Night baseball, to be tried by the National league for the first time this year, and the return to old-time "fighting" tactics on the field have contributed to the feeling that things are on the up-grade.

It's all due for further impetus when the tumult and the shouting heralds the advent of the championship contest next Tuesday on eight scattered battlefronts.

If the carefully planned proceedings are not handed another jolt by April's capricious weather, close to 250,000 fans may witness the ceremonial send-offs for the American League 35th season and the National League 60th campaign.

President Roosevelt, a dyed-in-the-wool fan, today proclaimed his intention of throwing out the first ball for the opener between the Washington Senators and Philadelphia Athletics at the Nation's Capital.

The debut of Babe Ruth as a National leaguer, after 21 years in the American league and 15 seasons as the idol of all American fandom, is expected to attract a capacity crowd of 45,000 to the home of the Boston Braves. The league's new president, Ford C. Frick, will be there. So will the New York Giants, with the renowned Carl Hubbell furnishing the southpaw stuff for the 40-year-old bumbino to hit against in his dramatic bid for another comeback.

The world champion St. Louis Cardinals likely will draw upwards of 40,000 for their opener at Chicago against the rival Cubs, with the elder of the famous Dean brothers opposing Warneke in the day's outstanding duel of pitching aces. The New York Yankees, without Ruth in the starting lineup, will watch the turnstiles with some apprehension but the team's unquestioned pennant prospects should combine with the enthusiasm of opening day to bring out at least 35,000 for the first clash with the Boston Red Sox, led by popular Joe Cronin.

Cincinnati's "New Deal" is expected to draw upwards of 30,000 for its first test against the Pittsburgh Pirates. Detroit's American league champions figure to attract as many or more cash customers for the start of their title defense against the Chicago White Sox, especially with the celebrated schoolboy Rowe doing the hurling for Mickey Cochrane's powerful crew.

The presence of the nation's chief executive should bring out at least 25,000 for the festivities featuring the Athletics and Senators against the leadership of Bucky Harris, Cleveland's warlike Indians play Browns at St. Louis and Casey Stengel's rejuvenated Brooklyn Dodgers meet the Phillies in the other starting engagements, each of which may be fortunate to draw 20,000 fans.

With a few exceptions, developments of the spring training season have not materially affected the pennant prospects. Although the Associated Press consensus established the World Champion Cardinals and the Cleveland Indians as slight favorites to finish on top, neither of these two clubs has a convincing margin.

In fact the pre-season "dope" now points more strongly to the New York Giants, as the likely winner of the National League race, with Detroit and New York figuring to make it at least a three-cornered affair in the junior circuit.

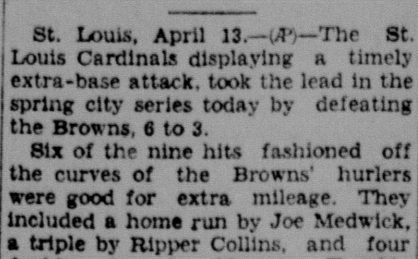

Cleveland's loss of Billy Knickerbocker, star young shortstop, is the biggest blow suffered by any contender. Walter Johnson's Indians will be forced to start the season with a pair of rookies, Lou Berger at second base and Roy Hughes at short in place of Knickerbocker, who will be on sidelines for at least another month as a result of an operation for appendicitis in New Orleans. If the club power and pitching rally sufficiently to tide over this emergency, Cleveland is certain to make a bold bid for pennant.

Detroit, with the same lineup it finished seven games in front of the big leagues, the Yankees to be in the American League. The Tigers inspired by Cochrane, pack a tremendous punch. They should improve pitching from a staff boasting three splendid right-handers—Rowe, Bridges and Auker. Their field defense may weaken and the always the risk of injuries to regulars with no outstanding replacement handy, but the burden of proof is on the rest of the league if club escapes mishaps.

Managed by Joe McCarthy, captured for the first time by Gehrig, home run king and iron-horse of the big leagues, the Yankees in the speed and pitching, as well as sufficient power, to go places. They are the Great Ruth as Jimmie Foxx, Speedy George Selkirk looms as one of the best of the club's youthful regulars. The return to form of men like Tony Lazzeri, Earle Combs and Bill Dickey, No. 1 back stop, may be sustained, however, if the Yankees are to capitalize the pitching of exceptionally capable staff, headed by Lefty Gomez, Red Ruffing, John Broaca and Pat Malone, ex-cub.

SHOTS LIKE MOTHER USED TO MAKE

Fair-haired Glenna Collett Vare, Jr., may some day emulate her illustrious mother. While watching play in the Masters' Tournament at Augusta, Mrs. Vare, formerly America's foremost golfer, illustrated how her daughter is starting early.

Yankees Smother Dodgers 8 To 4

Brooklyn, April 13.—(P)—The New York Yankees made effective use of their eleven hits today to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers 8 to 4 as 5,000 fans, braving adverse weather, turned out to welcome both teams home from their southern training tours.

With Lou Gehrig driving in the initial run in the first frame with a single and then connecting with a homer in the third, the Yanks found little difficulty solving the offerings of Watson Clark, Van Mungo, Johnny Babich and Bob Logan.

Lefty Gomez started for the Yanks, but ran into a streak of wildness in the third when he handed out three passes and let loose a wild throw and was relieved by Red Ruffing. He gave another free ticket to force in a run, but then steadied and allowed only one more tally before being replaced by Pat Malone at the start of the seventh.

Schumacher, pitching the first six innings, held the American Leaguers to five hits and started the Giants' scoring with a homer off Monte Pearson in the fifth with a mate on base. New York—(AP)—The Association of Baby Carriage Dealers has received a report that, while sales of ordinary

Y. M. Cagers To Meet For League Crown

Steinheimers And Smiths To Tangle On David Prince
Court Monday Night

Final games of the Y. M. C. A. Basketball League to determine the season champions are to be played in the David Prince gymnasium on Monday, Tuesday and possibly Wednesday evenings. The championship standings will be determined by two wins out of three, the games on Wednesday being conditioned on the results of the games on Monday and Tuesday.

Games between the leading teams of the two periods—Steinheimers and Smith's Indians—will be played each evening at 8 o'clock, and at 9:00 Smiths and Barnharts will meet to determine the third place positions. John Deem and Frank Walker have been asked to act as referees.

During the season's games Steinheimers and Smiths have each lost but one game, and that was to each other, while Smiths and Barnharts have a somewhat similar record. The standing of the teams for the full season of 14 games is:

|                          | Won | Lost | Pct. |

Norristown, Pa.—(AP)—William Penn Lodge, athletic instructor, has a $30,000 gymnasium as a reward for reducing a woman's weight from 400 to 240 pounds.

Judge J. Burnett Holland awarded him the gym, upholding a verbal promise which Lodge said Mrs. Eliza Jarman Tetlow, wealthy widow, made in gratitude before her death in 1931.

SUNSHINE MEANS WOE FOR FISH—PERHAPS

Steady Stream of Piscatorial Pursuers Get Licenses

Sunshine means a lot of trouble for the piscatorial life of the more or less prolific waters of this section of the state if Saturday's activity in the fish-license vending places means anything.

Almost a steady stream of applicants for licenses to hunt the sparkling waters of so-and-so's slough, and this-and-that bay or such-and-such a lake greeted clerks in the county and city buildings, and in various hardware stores and filling stations as Old Sol crept out from behind a cloud to entice the anglers from behind their winter stoves.

Right now the small game fish, crappie, perch, goggle-eye, blue-gill, sunfish, are the only ones which may be legally lifted from their home waters. However, the trout season, almost unknown in this section, will open April 15, and the bass season will be here June 15.

PAY GREENE HOGGROWERS

Third Payment Of Corn-Hog Checks Begins; Other Greene News

Carrollton, Ill., April 13.—Third payment checks for $103,252.00 on 904 corn-hog contracts were distributed Friday and Saturday to farmers and producers of the county. This payment represented the final hog payment under the 1934 contract. Second payment checks have not yet been received on about 250 contracts in this district. This situation has been called to the attention of the corn-hog section by local officials, and it is expected that checks will be received for distribution with the next ten days.

A complete check on the 1935 corn-hog applications signed shows that Greene county producers have 85 per cent as much corn land under contract for 1935 as was under contract in 1934. There are 1090 applications for 1935 covering 64,238 acres of corn land.

Braddock Will Meet Baer in June Bout

Champ Already Under New York Garden Contract; Date Not Certain

New York—(AP)—James J. Braddock, hardly more than a light heavyweight, will challenge Max Baer's right to the heavyweight championship in Madison Square Garden's Long Island bowl in June.

The 28-year-old Jersey City slugger, veteran of ten years' erratic warfare among the light-heavyweights and heavyweights, has accepted terms for a fifteen-round championship match. Contracts probably will be signed today.

Baer, who won the title from Primo Carnera last June with Braddock fighting in one of the preliminaries, already is under contract to the Garden.

Jimmy Johnston, Garden matchmaker, who announced last night he definitely had selected Braddock for the title match, said he was not yet certain just when the fight would be held but probably "around June 10." By deduction, fight experts figured it would be staged either June 6 or June 13, since the Garden regularly holds its outdoor shows on Thursdays.

Washington—(AP)—The War Department approved plans submitted by the Father Marquette Memorial Bridge association for construction of a bridge across the Illinois river about 3.8 miles above Grafton, Ill.

TRIO ACQUITTED OF BOMBING TRAINS

Harrisburg, Ill.—(AP)—The state today had failed in its first criminal prosecution growing out of the recent investigation of bombings of Southern Illinois coal trains.

A jury yesterday, after an hour's deliberation, acquitted Sam Doah, William Bennett and Harry Melton, Harco Progressive miners, of charges of procuring dynamite for illegal purposes.

Wilbur Williams of Chapin was a business caller here yesterday.

Hold Non-Partisan Rally; Clemens and Jackson Make Talks

Citizens Ticket Prepares for Election Tuesday; Present Candidates

A meeting of the Citizens Non-Partisan ticket was held at the court house Friday night with a capacity crowd on hand to hear the issues of the campaign presented by able speakers.

LONG'S BIG 1c SALE
Wed., Thurs., Fri., & Sat.

All candidates were present including H. E. Clemens for mayor; Henry D. Jackson, Sr., for city clerk; Barbara Kennedy for treasurer; J. A. Tapscott and Orville Dewees, first ward candidates for aldermen; Bert Smith and Leroy Sellers, second ward; Cletie Graves and Benjamin Large, third ward; Ray E. LaBeau and G. N. Cruzan, fourth ward.

Mr. Clemens spoke in detail on the platform which he and all of the other candidates declared will be carried out to the letter if they are elected. Mr. Clemens urged the election of the entire Non-Partisan ticket, so that the program can be carried out with harmony.

Charging that there is much opposition to his program "by selfish individuals in the other two parties, who are using every influence to break down and scatter Non-Partisan candidates and workers," Clemens urged his audience to stand together.

Henry Jackson, the candidate for city clerk, spoke as follows:

A Serious Undertaking

"We are here tonight on a serious undertaking. It is a new movement. We have had a great deal of difficulty. We have other things to do other than come out to the meetings that have been held before the public. I have just finished my daily task and just had time to get up to this meeting. We have no speeches at our meetings ready for publication before they are delivered, and material which is published in newspapers through the effort to camouflage real issues of the campaign is not so.

"We have asked Mr. Baldwin to act as chairman of our meeting tonight as our chairman was absent on account of business.

"When issues of principles are at stake you will find your ladies and gentlemen will be getting facts from every angle. I am glad to see so many of you good people here tonight and am glad to know you are interested in your city. This is the ticket tonight that has been criticized because we stand for principle, justice, righteousness, and honesty. We are not striving to build up a political machine. We are a serious group of people that have been selected on this ticket for a purpose to carry out every plank in the Citizens Non-Partisan Party movement. They have all had propositions offered. But refused to sell their birthright for a mess of pottage. Two-thirds of the people of the city of Jacksonville are dissatisfied. We are not a bunch of Bolsheviks. We are a people that stand ready and willing as good government citizens to defend our flag to the last drop of blood. There are men here tonight who fought to make the world safe for democracy.

Favor New Industries

"We are in favor of opening the closed gates of our city to industries of the world. I am in favor of making Jacksonville wide open to any manufacturing establishment which will give employment to our people."

"I noticed the other night in the platform of our opponents that they are going to have a Non-Partisan Park board. Yes, I believe there will be when we are elected.

"The Abraham Lincolns are dead tonight. The Thomas Jeffersons are dead. But their principles live on. But whenever your party departs from principle that party dies down."

"I will be able to live on the salary that the city clerk receives and will conduct the office to the best of my ability. I will institute a new accounting system. I will never permit that office to be a clearing house for the city of Jacksonville. As I am about to close for this evening, I work for you to bear in mind we are still an independent people. I have been asked why I run on the Citizens ticket, because they would have endorsed me, but you can't put a worn out wheel in a new machine and make it work just the same as you can't put a new wheel on a worn out machine and make that work. What got under their skins was that someone else got under the movement and started it first.

"I wish to state that after all the propaganda has been said, your candidate for mayor is first, last and always 100% for his fellow man. We are working for the good of Jacksonville. If you believe that we are qualified to handle the respective positions it is up to you as American citizens to make your decisions on the 16th day of April. You will protect your homes and children and when this ticket is elected on the 16th day of April. The night will be filled with music and the cares that infest the day shall fold up their tents like Arabs and silently steal away."

OBITUARY
Richard J. Sheppard, the son of McClelland and Lida Parker Sheppard, was born six miles southeast of Murrayville, on Oct. 14, 1889. He with his sister Virgil, he grew to manhood among the scenes common to a sturdy farming community, and developed the characteristics of manhood that have dominated his life as a real man among men.

On February 22, 1912, he was united in marriage with Rosella Kehl, then of Roodhouse, with whom he established his home near Nortonville.

After three years there, they moved to their new home just north of Woodson, where they lived until about seven years ago, when they bought a home in South Jacksonville, where they have since resided.

Together the husband and wife united with the Christian church in Woodson, from which they came to the Central Christian church of Jacksonville, which has since been their church home.

Soon after leaving the farm he took a position with Montgomery Ward & Co. but was soon appointed to be superintendent of the laundry at the Jacksonville State Hospital, where he continued until his last illness, which was of short duration and brought to a close a beautiful and useful life at six o'clock Tuesday.

April 9 funeral was conducted from the Williamson Funeral Home with the Rev. Roy Mough officiating.

The quiet unassuming life attracted to him a host of friends who appreciate the best in mankind, and his home was open to all in the most generous spirit.

Spring Activities Started at Camp Henry T. Rainey

Carrollton—With the coming of Spring and the constant expectation that the commanding officer of the 6th Corps Area, Maj. Gen. McCoy may visit us, plans are being pushed for a general "priming up" of the camp. Such projects as building a decorative stone entrance, tree planting, shrubbery setting and what is known in army parlance as "manicuring the grounds" are in effect.

Another project in view making for a more pleasant appearing mess hall is the covering of the mess hall tables with a light colored hard surfaced material. Repainting of the mess hall proper with perhaps the addition of hanging plants and ferns, the softening of curtains and a decorative bulletin displaying daily menus is also contemplated. Paint, green, red, white will be used through in effort to enhance the beauty of the camp.

An idea, born at the time when Capt. Crowder first entered Carrollton and was greeted by the sign stating that the late Henry T. Rainey was a resident of Carrollton, and which led to the changing of the camp name in honor of the great speaker is being further developed. Tentative plans for a dedication ceremony and program are being considered which we hope will materialize upon the advent of good weather.

Athletics
Bad, bad weather hindered the boys from indulging in baseball practice. When the occasion does arise the fellows will be out battling the old pill around.

Nevertheless, men, under the direction of Capt. C. A. Arnold, camp maintenance and personnel officer, are developing a volleyball, tennis court and indoor baseball diamond. As soon as the new enrollment quota is completed the changes which will help make the recreation hall larger than it is at present will also be begun.

Social Notes
Capt. Arnold celebrated his birthday Saturday. A surprise birthday dinner was arranged at which the following guests were present, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Helen O'Brien, Miss

A section titled "Today's Almanac: April 15th". It includes a list of historical events and a section titled "Two New Hydrants Being Installed by Water Department". The text describes the installation of two new hydrants in the city and the widening of the street.

Today's Almanac:
April 15th
1797: Louis Adolphe Thiers, President of the French Republic, born.
1865: Andrew Johnson becomes President of the United States.

Two New Hydrants Being Installed by Water Department
Bring Water to Rear of City Hall for Test Outlet; Corner Widened

Ample fire protection covering several blocks in the vicinity of the City Hall is being provided by the installation of two new hydrants. The work is being done by the water department under direction of the superintendent, A. C. Jantzen. The principal work consists of installation of a new hydrant in the rear yard of the city building.

To get water for the new hydrant it was necessary to lay 300 feet of new 6-inch main from North West street along the alley and into the yard. This work is now under way. The new hydrant will furnish protection for the City Hall and adjacent property and will serve as an outlet for testing the fire-fighting equipment as required by law.

The hydrant in front of the Morgan Dairy plant, which was formerly used for testing the apparatus, has been removed, in order that the corner at the intersection of Douglas avenue and North Sandy street could be widened. Widening has been carried out in front of the Skinner blacksmith shop and the Morgan Dairy plant.

To replace the hydrant thus removed a new outlet has been installed at the corner of Douglas avenue and North Main street, which will provide fire protection to all property within a radius of a block.

The mains on both West and Main streets had to be tapped for the new hydrants. It was necessary to insert a valve and sleeve to control the water, and for this work Mr. Jantzen secured an expert from the Mueller Manufacturing Co., of Decatur, who made the taps.

Widening the City Hall corner gives more room for runs from the department with the large trucks.
